11 April 2022

Product Disclosure Statement changes

We're making changes to the Wholesale Australian Property Fund ('Fund') that will be reflected in the new Product Disclosure Statement (PDS), available from the fund page on our website from 11 April 2022.

The key changes include, but are not limited to:

- The appointment of AMP Capital Funds Management Limited as responsible entity
- Updated indirect costs
- Withdrawals and distributions no longer paid by cheque
- New mailing address.

Details of the changes are provided below. Before making any investment decisions, we recommend you read the information in the relevant PDS about the benefits and risks of investing, and the other features of the Fund.

The appointment of AMP Capital Funds Management Limited as responsible entity

On 11 April 2022, National Mutual Funds Management Ltd (ABN 32 006 787 720) retired as responsible entity of the Fund and AMP Capital Funds Management Limited (ABN 15 159 557 721) was appointed as the replacement responsible entity. Both companies are currently members of the AMP Group.

We believe this change is beneficial, as AMP Capital Funds Management Limited is a dedicated responsible entity, specialised in real estate and infrastructure funds.

You can read more about the change in the unitholder notice provided to you previously. Importantly, there's no material change to the way your investment is managed.

Updated estimates of indirect costs

While there have been no changes to the fee structure that applies, our estimates of certain fees and costs have been updated following our latest review, to ensure they accurately reflect the costs of managing the Fund.

Full details can be found in the PDS. As always, we recommend you read this document to understand the main benefits and risks of investing, along with other features of the Fund.

Withdrawals and distributions no longer paid by cheque

We'll no longer pay withdrawals and distributions by cheque. All withdrawals and distributions need to be paid into a nominated account. If you haven't previously provided us details of the account you'd like withdrawals and distributions paid into, please complete the Change of Details form available on our website, and return it to us.
