Earnings guidance upgraded to 7% growth for FY14

DEXUS Property Group (DEXUS) today announced an upgrade to its FY14 earnings guidance together with details regarding its distribution for the six months ending 31 December 2013.

Funds from Operations (FFO) guidance¹ for FY14 has increased from prior guidance of 8.15 cents per stapled security to 8.29 cents per stapled security, representing a 7.0% increase on FY13 actual FFO of 7.75 cents per stapled security. This increase in guidance has been driven by the on-market securities buy-back undertaken in August and September 2013, and the net impact of DEXUS's investment² in Commonwealth Property Office Fund (CPA)³.

DEXUS CEO Darren Steinberg said: "Today's increase in guidance is evidence of our focus on enhancing value and returns to investors. Both the reinstatement of the buy-back in July 2013 and our use of an efficient derivative structure for the investment in CPA, reflect our active approach to capital management. This continuing focus, together with solid underlying performance in our existing office and industrial portfolios, is expected to deliver a strong 7.0% increase in FFO for FY14."

The distribution amount for the six months ending 31 December 2013 is 3.07 cents per stapled security, a 6.2% increase compared to the previous corresponding period. The payment will be made in accordance with the following timetable:

Ex-distribution date:	23 December 2013
Record date:	31 December 2013
Payment date and dispatch of statements:	28 February 2014

For the year ending 30 June 2014, DEXUS is targeting a payout ratio of approximately 75% of Funds from Operations which is expected to deliver full year distributions¹ of 6.24 cents per stapled security.
