DEXUS announces a female agent of the year award

DEXUS Property Group announced a new award category for the next two years (2016 and 2017), the Female Agent of the Year award, at its 22nd Excellence in Agency annual awards held on 28 August 2015.

DEXUS CEO, Darren Steinberg said: "As a Property Male Champion of Change, I see property as a great career path for both men and women and it is important that we are supporting the diversity agenda in a number of ways."

The Female Agent of the Year Award will specifically celebrate the contribution of women in property, encouraging all in the industry to promote and support women into leasing and customer related roles. It will be presented over two years, after which the intended impact would have normalised women's participation in property leasing and transactions.

In addition, a key consideration for DEXUS in appointing agents going forward will be gender diversity in their teams.

Some of the recent initiatives DEXUS has introduced include supporting the Women in Property mentoring program, introducing continuity of superannuation during parental leave, and now supporting female colleagues in the industry via this agency award.

The 2015 Excellence in Agency award winners were all involved in leasing and property transactions that were successfully concluded on behalf of DEXUS over past year:

2015 Office Agency of the Year - Colliers International Sydney

2015 Industrial Agency of the Year - CBRE Parramatta

2015 Office Agent of the Year - Mark Curtain, CBRE Brisbane

2015 Industrial Agent of the Year - Graham Norris, Ray White, Brisbane

2015 Tenant Advocate of the Year - Tim Nicholas, CBRE Global Corporate Solutions

2015 Leasing Transaction of the Year - Cameron Williams, Colliers International Sydney

2015 Property Transaction of the Year - Michael Fenton, Sam Brewer and Blair Peterken, JLL Sydney

Darren Steinberg said: "DEXUS had a successful year and these awards recognise the effort of our agency partners who have helped our performance over the year. We look forward to continuing our relationships as we work together towards achieving further success."
