Tax information must be collected from the individual or from an authorised representative of an entity customer.

Please note: the individual may be treated as being a non-Australian taxpayer if the requested information is not provided.

If you are a US citizen or resident, please complete the US Tax Status Declaration Form - Individuals, available at www.dexus.com/identification.

SECTION 2 - TAX INFORMATION

Tax residency rules differ by country. Whether an individual is a tax resident of a particular country is often (but not always) based on the amount of time a person spends in a country, the location of a person's residence or place of work. For the United States (US), tax residency can be as a result of citizenship or residency.

Please answer both tax residency questions:

(a) Is the individual a tax resident of Australia?

☐ Yes☐ No

(b) Is the individual a tax resident of another country? If 'Yes' to (b), please provide details below.

☐ Yes☐ No

If you are a tax resident of a country other than Australia, please provide your tax identification number (TIN) or equivalent below for each foreign country in which you are a tax resident.

If there are more countries, provide details on a separate sheet and tick this box.

☐

Reason A The country of tax residency does not issue TINs to tax residents.

Reason B The country of tax residency issues TINs, but I currently cannot provide it.

Reason C The country of tax residency does not require the TIN to be disclosed.

A TIN is the number assigned by each country for the purposes of administering tax laws. This is the equivalent of a Tax File Number in Australia or a Social Security Number in the United States. If a TIN is not provided, please list one of the three reasons (A, B or C) for not providing a TIN.
